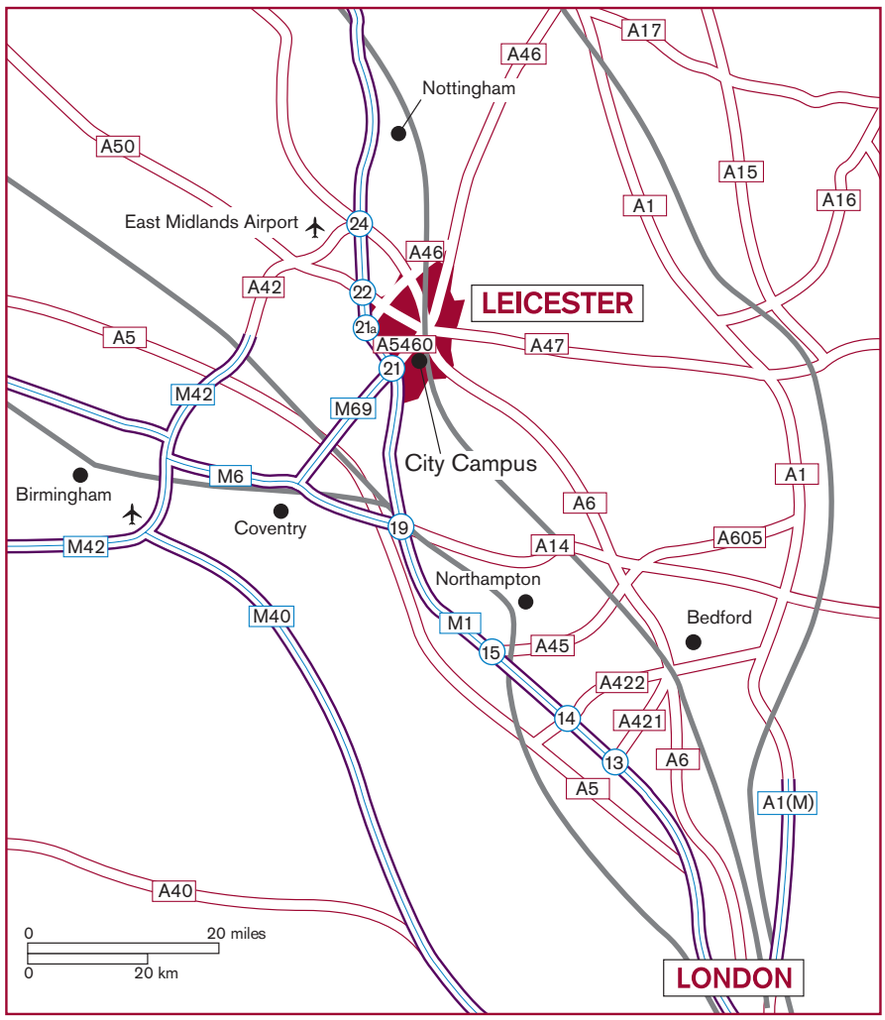
By foot

Approximate walking times from Leicester railway station to DMU campus: 15 minutes



By car

From Junction 21 of the M1, or the Leicester junction of the M69, take the A5460 to Leicester city centre. Follow this road for approximately four miles. Go straight through several sets of traffic lights, and after passing under a railway bridge turn right into Upperton Road, following signs to the universities and the Leicester Royal Infirmary. Take the first left at the roundabout into Western Boulevard. For Queens Building, Campus Centre and the Loading Bay (Goods Reception) take the first right into Mill Lane.
For Trinity House, Portland Building, Hawthorn Building and Hugh Aston Building take the second right into The Newarke.

From the north

Leave the M1 at Junction 22 and follow the A50 to Leicester (eight miles). When you reach the city centre turn right into Vaughan Way (A594).

Keep in the right-hand lane through the underpass. After 200 metres, follow the road to the left into Newarke Street and keeping in the right-hand lane, follow it right into Welford Road. At the second set of traffic lights turn right into Carlton Street.

From the east

Take the A46 or A47 to Leicester and follow signs for the city centre.

Parking

Please use the public car parks shown on the maps.
Please note there is no parking on campus for students (except disabled students).

By train/bus

If you are arriving by train or bus, the city campus is situated very near the city centre and is about a 15 minute walk from both the bus station and the train station.
